CRUSADER

CRUSAIDER

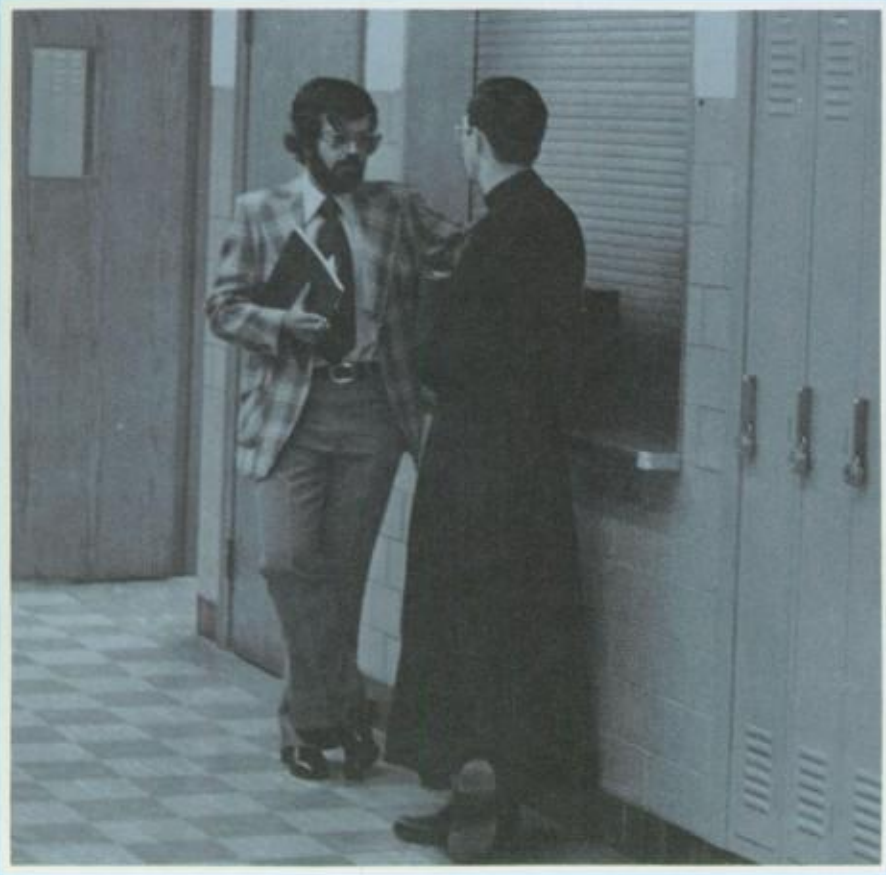

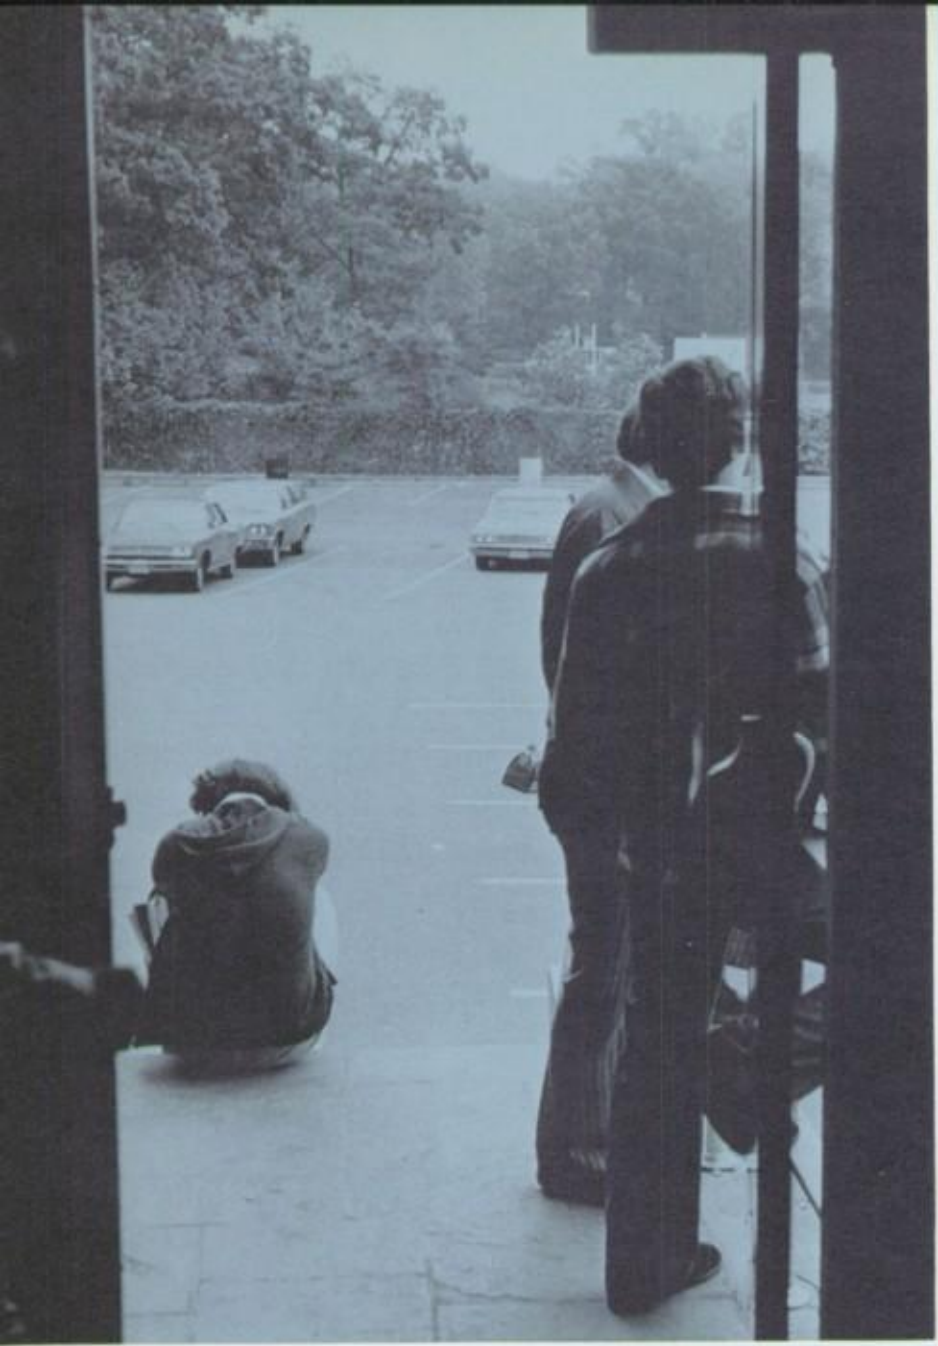

We dedicate this year's Crusader to the beloved artist and illustrator, Norman Rockwell.

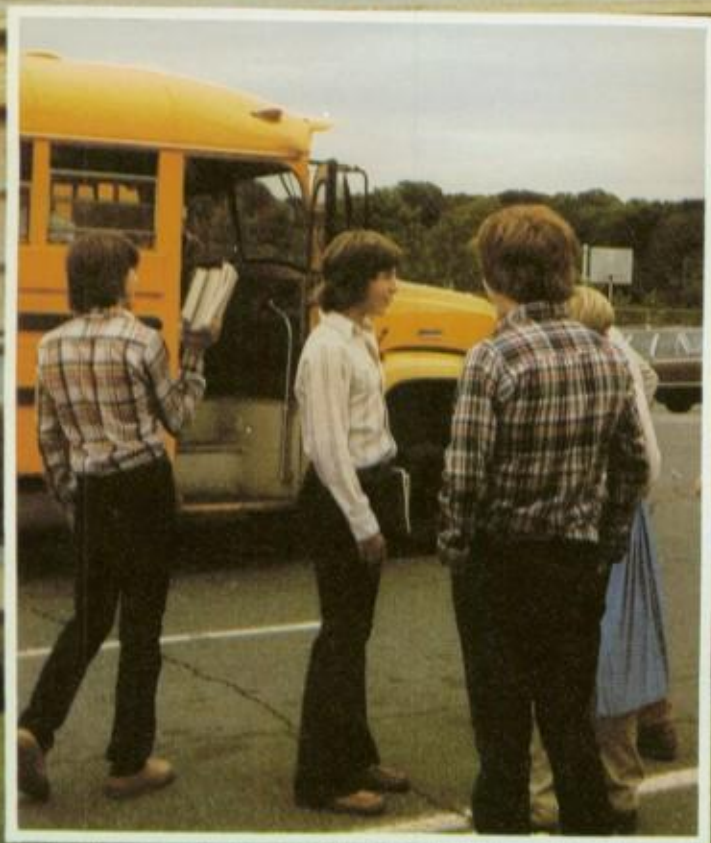

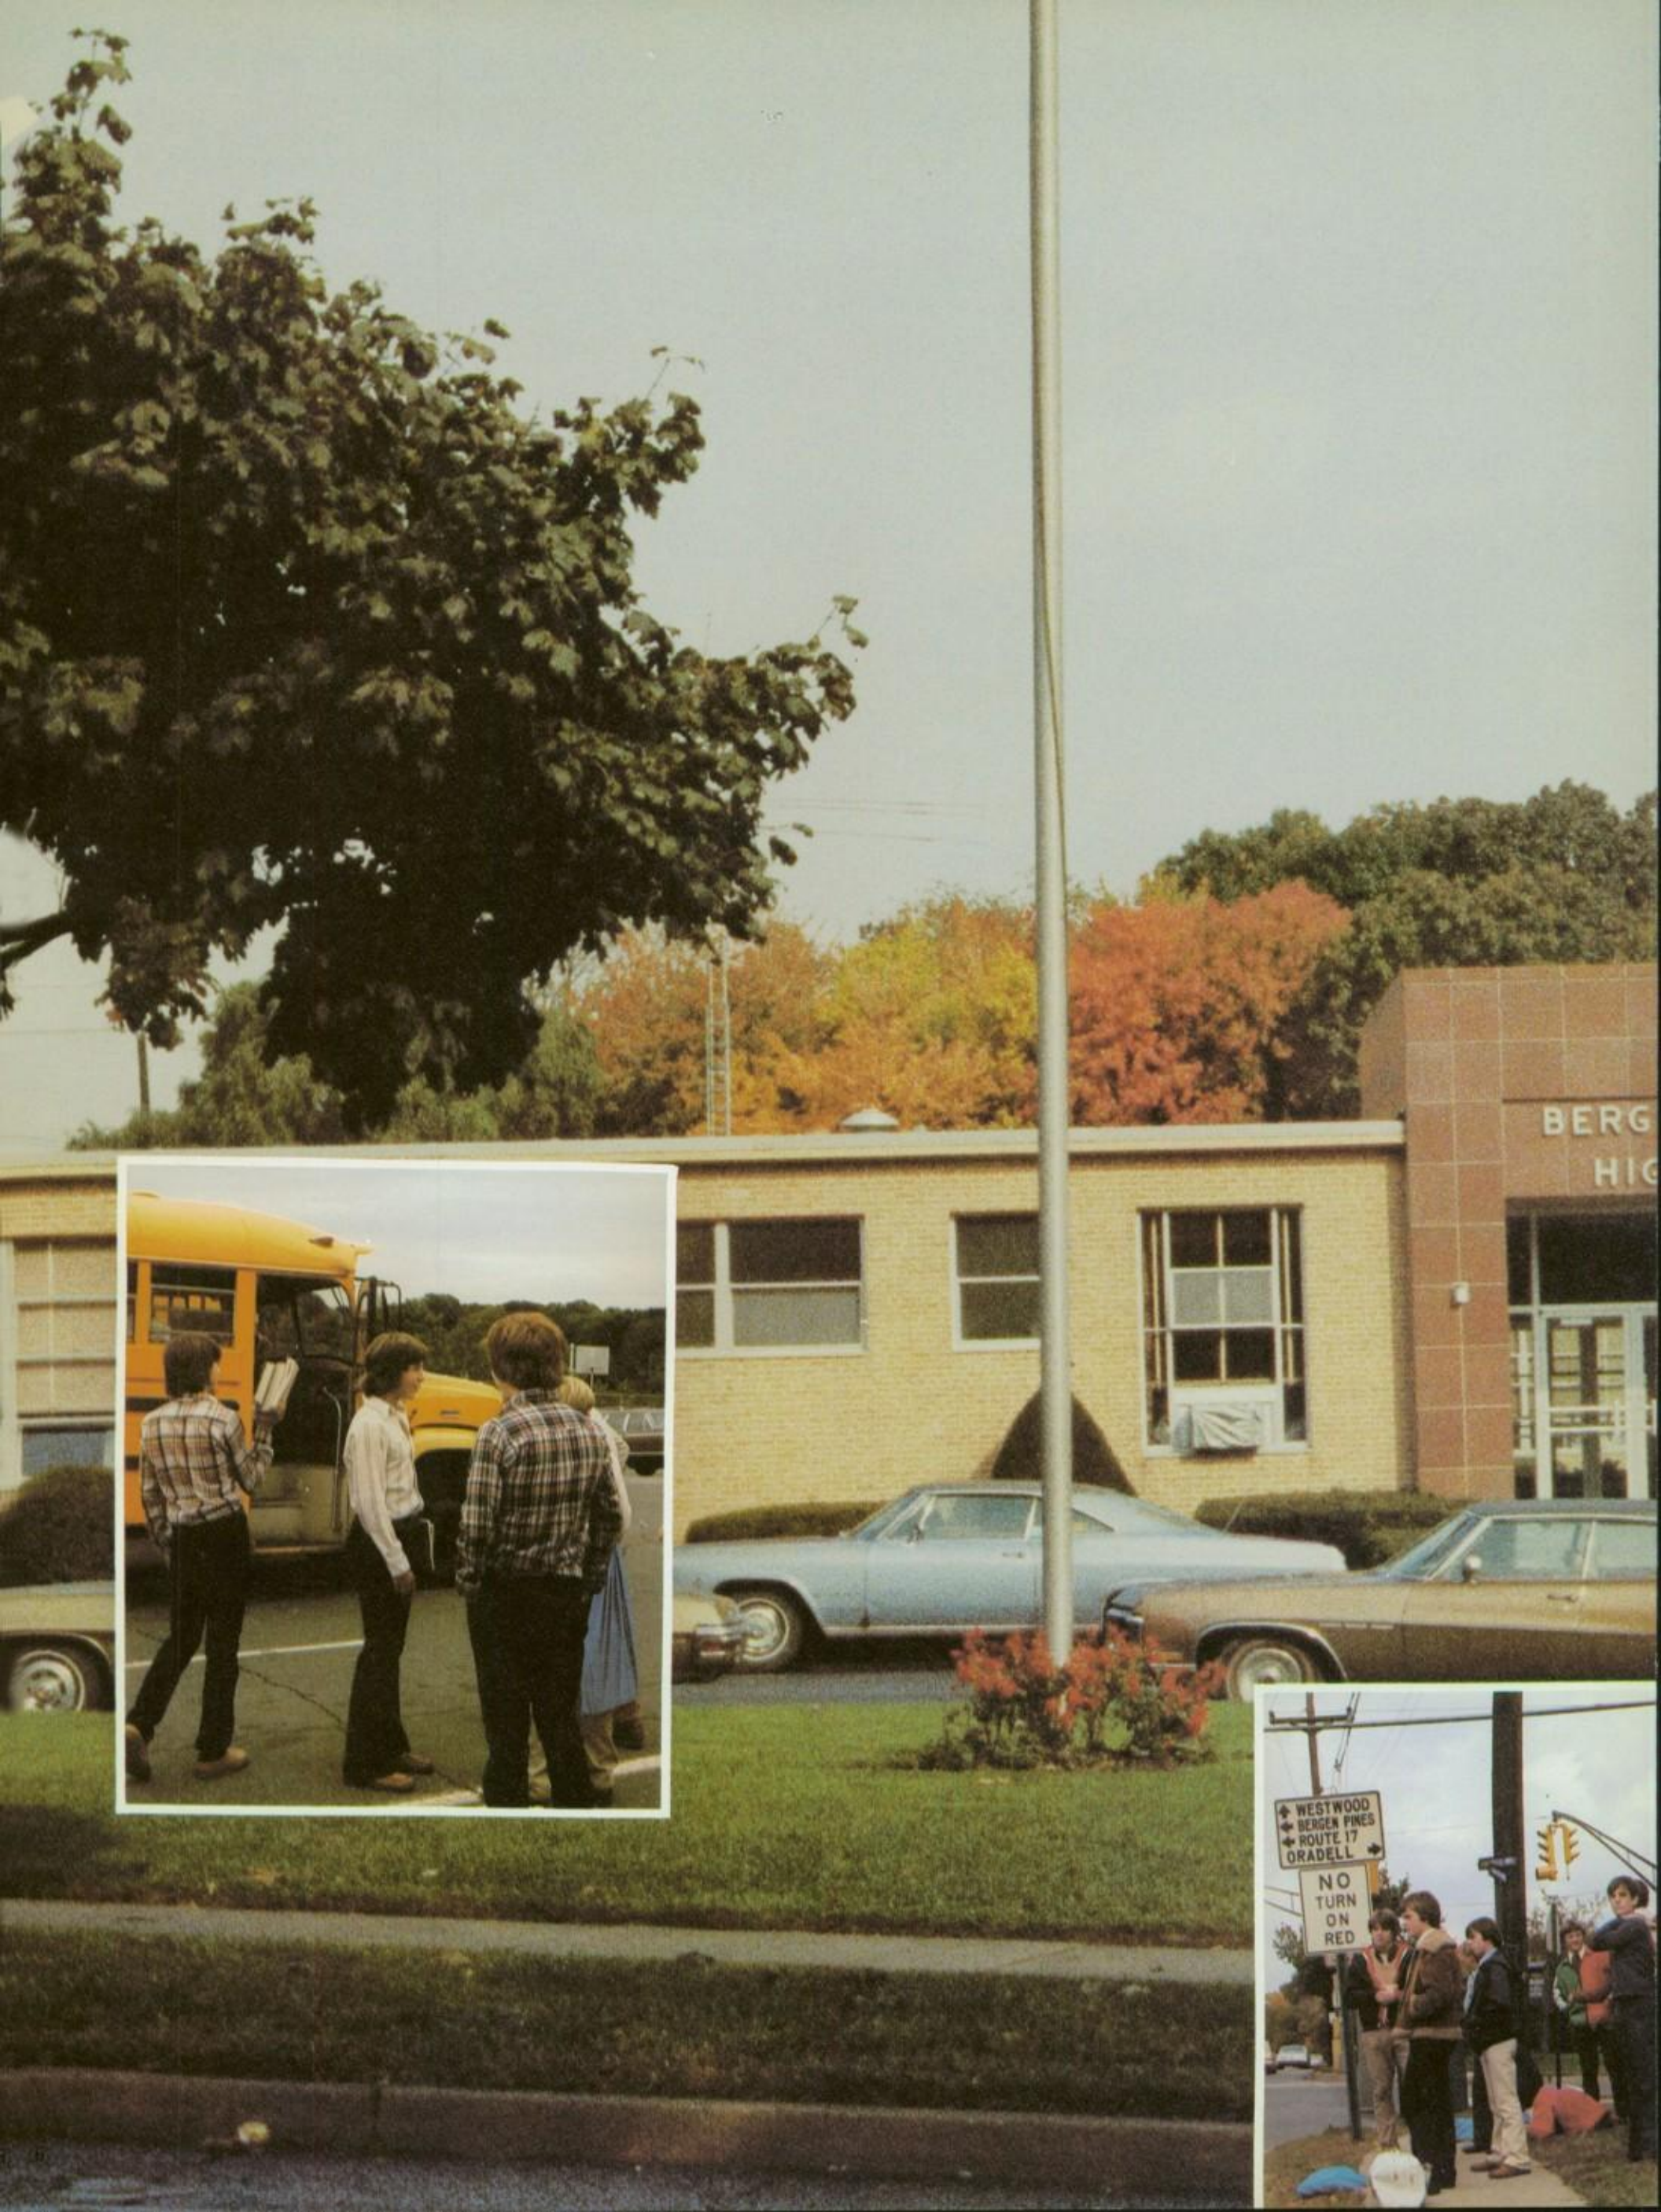

In his paintings he had the ability to reveal the deeper meaning of what we see, and clearly picture the trials, problems, satisfactions, and joys of American life.

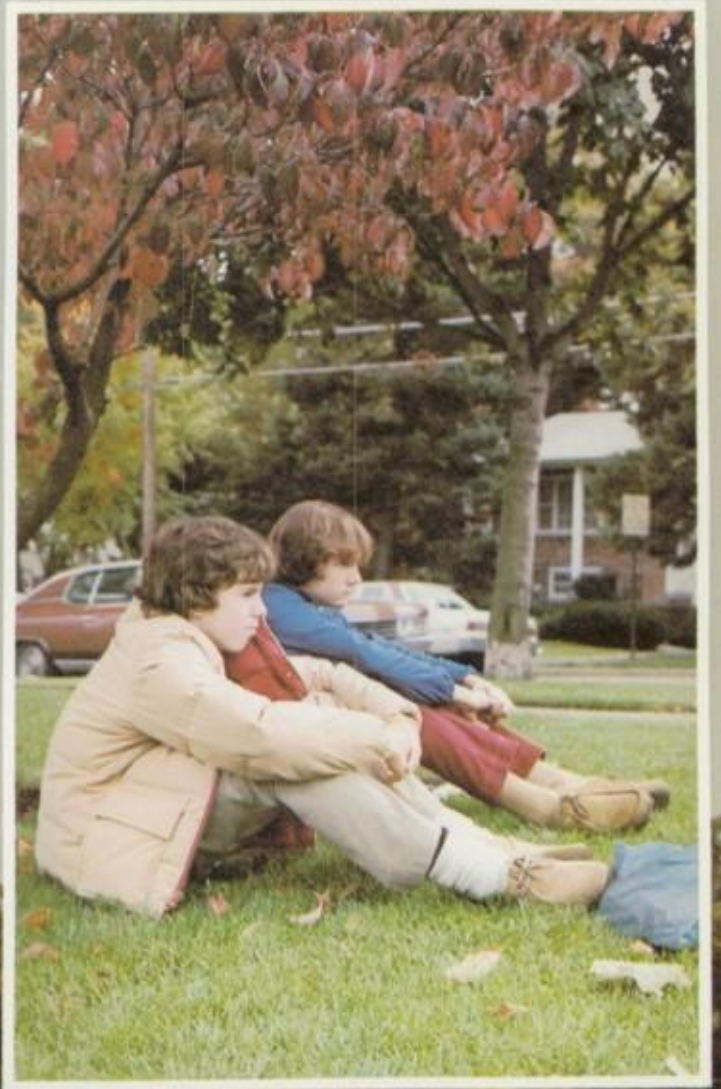

Because he had a special feeling for young people, and an understanding of their world, he continually portrayed them in his paintings. We have felt it appropriate to use his creations to help us capture the character and atmosphere of life at Bergen Catholic.

1977 Production "South Pacific"

Directed by Brother Antosca and Brother Termini, South Pacific developed into a first rate performance. From stage crew to chorus, enthusiasm gave the play its vitality.

Some of those who contributed to the success of the play included: Anette Singer, Lisa Chibbaro, Paul Singer, Brian Sutter, Lisa Chibbaro, and John Alliot.

"My Fair Lady"

The '78 production of the B.C. Drama Club is My Fair Lady. The stage crew has outdone itself in stage design, and Brother Antosca and Brother Termini have again managed to tap the creative potential of all those involved. From the looks of things, My Fair Lady will be another quality performance by the B.C. Drama Club.

This short paragraph and these few pictures do not tell half the story of the dynamic Mothers' and Fathers' Clubs of Bergen Catholic. It is not an exaggeration to say that there would be something vital missing at Bergen without our parents' enthusiasm and selfless giving of their time.

Thank you for cake sales, dances, bingo, auctions, card parties, fashion shows, golf outings, and countless activities that keep Bergen alive and growing.

Ski Team

In it's first year as a varsity sport, the Bergen Catholic Ski Team concentrated mainly on developing racing skills. Since most members of the team were inexperienced, this was a necessity. The team is hoping to improve and expand to J.V. and Freshmen levels. The team's future seems bright.

Varsity Soccer

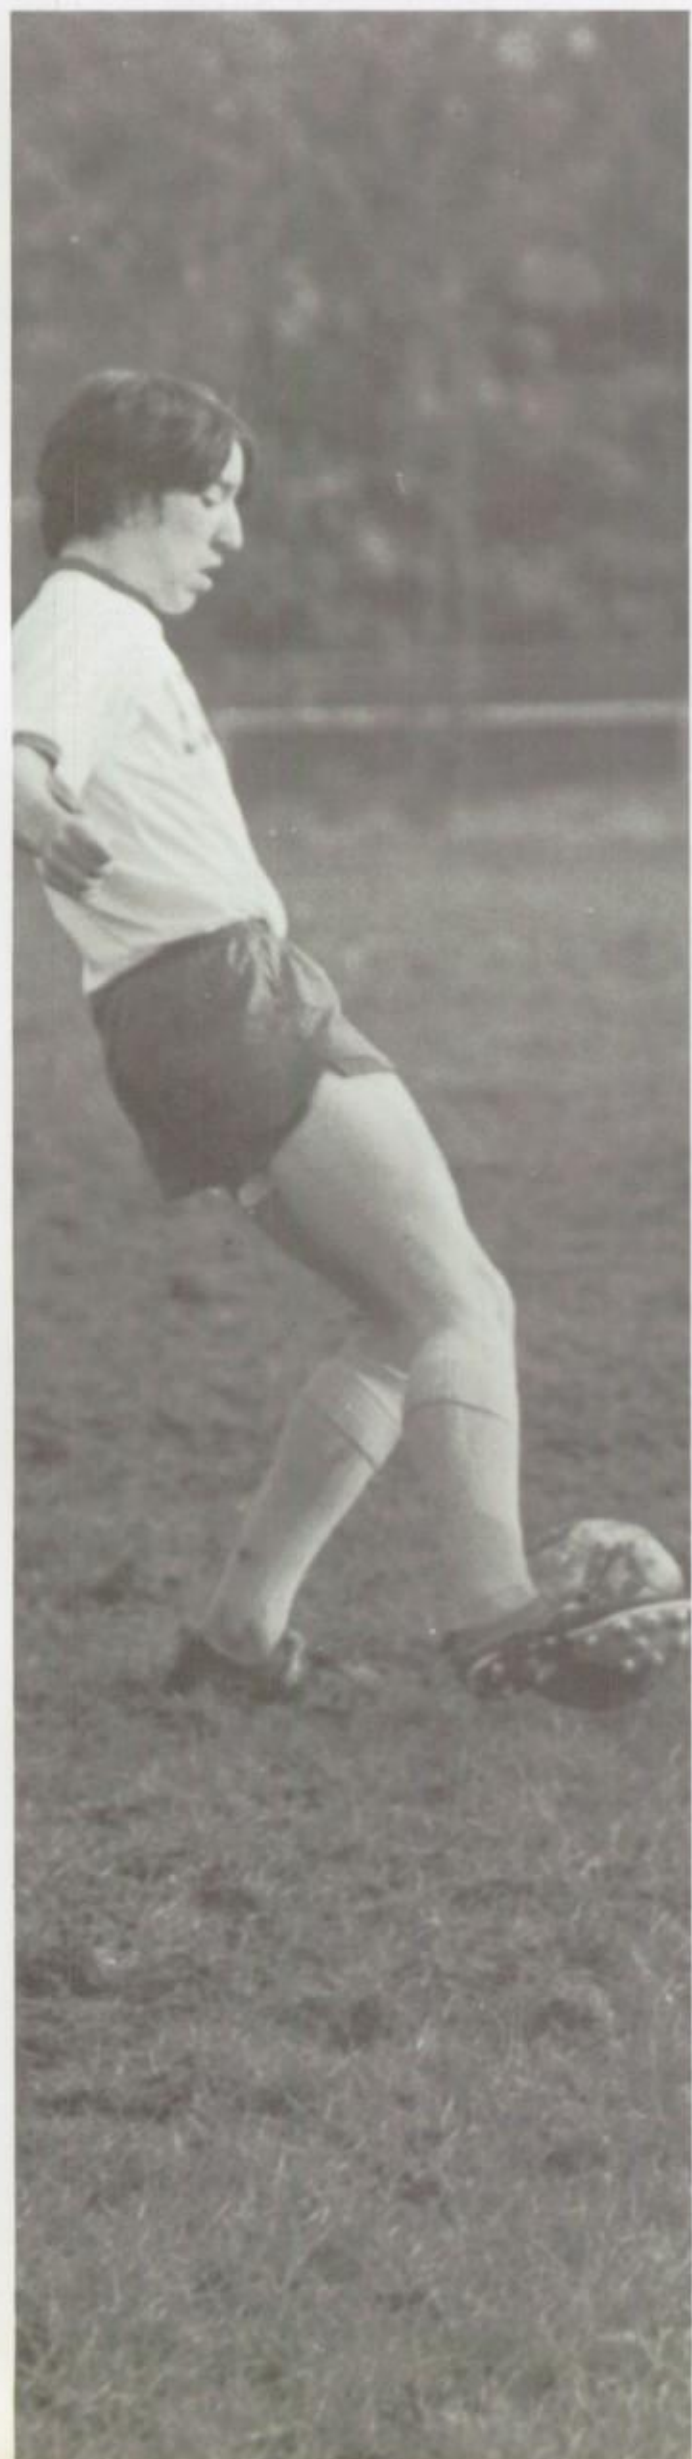

After a crucial injury to captain Dave Ferri and three subsequent losses, Bergen's soccer season appeared on the verge of disaster. However, six victories in nine games enabled the team to attain a 6-6-2 season's record. Victories over Don Bosco, Don Bosco Tech and highly rated St. Joe's clearly showed Bergen's superiority over its parochial rivals.

Dave Ferri, Terry Sheridan, Pat Mulholland, Frank Grey and Bill Lee all received county recognition, while Sheridan, Grey, and Mulholland were voted All-State.

Thanks to Coach Beattie, Brother Termini and all those who supported the team.

Office Of The Editor

Students, Faculty, and Friends of Bergen Catholic:

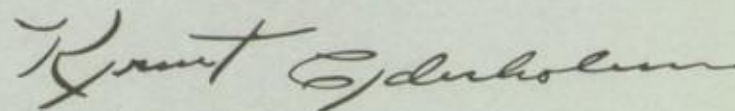

When work on Crusader '78 began last September, it was agreed that the time had come to lay aside many of the yearbook traditions that had evolved over the past two decades to make room for new concepts and original designs. It took almost eight months of daily work on the part of the staff, but I honestly believe that we accomplished our goals, and created a fitting cronicle of the Bergen Catholic community.

Many people contributed their time and talents to the successful completion of this publication, but there are several who deserve special credit for their outstanding contributions. My greatest debt of gratitude must be extended to the late Norman Rockwell, whose brilliant illustrations formed the cornerstone for Crusader '78. I must also express my appreciation to Mrs. Helen Wernle and the Curtis Publishing Co., and Brown and Bigelow for so generously granting us permission to use Mr. Rockwell's paintings. (Pictures reprinted from The Saturday Evening Post c 1916 - 63 The Curtis Publishing Company and pictures reproduced by permission of and copyright by Brown and Bigelow, a division of Standard Packaging, St. Paul, Minnesota.)

I would like to thank Mr. Esposito and Josten's/American Yearbook company for their quality work. Mr. Davis and his photography is once again responsible for the fine student portraits throughout the book, and a special thank you to Mr. Davis for his assistance with the opening section. I would like to acknowledge photographers John Schneider, Tom Roberts, and Matt La Viola, whose pictures literally make the yearbook. Their talent and creativity in the dark room and out in the field make them artists in their own right. Finally, I must express my appreciation to our Moderator, Br. Di Figlia. I know I am speaking for the entire staff when I say that without his advice, leadership, and food, Crusader '78 would never have been a reality.

For most of the seniors, their years at Bergen will probably be remembered as some of the best years of their lives. I feel proud and honored that I was able to have a hand in creating a book that will help them keep their fond memories alive.

Sincerely,

Kermit Cederholm
Editor-in-chief
